

Gas Malaysia uplifts the needy with Zakat Wakalah

by NURUL SUHAIDI

IN KEEPING with the spirit of Ramadhan this year, Gas Malaysia Bhd is committed to fostering ties among the community by organising an iftar ceremony at the Glenmarie Golf & Country Club last Friday.

During the ceremony, the company handed over Zakat Wakalah to 10 organisations worth RM5,000 each, as part of its efforts to aid the community and reinstate the spirit of giving.

Among the zakat recipients were Pertubuhan Kebajikan Ehsan Ash Shakur, Pertubuhan Rahoma Darul Fakir Malaysia, Rumah Kebajikan Anak Yatim Al Munirah, Rumah Aman and a few mahaad tahfiz.

The group said the handover was part of its zakat sustainability programme to support the needy, while ensuring their well-being, happiness and welfare.

Furthermore, the iftar gathering is a hallmark of its Ramadhan celebration this year, which makes a return after a hiatus during the pandemic.

In line with spirit of unity, Gas Malaysia's diverse community took part in the iftar ceremony to strengthen their bond and highlight inclusivity in the spirit of Ramadhan. They dined together with the honourees, with scrumptious delicacies in abundance at the country club.

CEO Ahmad Hashimi (centre, in dark green) with Gas Malaysia management at the iftar and zakat handover ceremony

Among the Gas Malaysia top management present at the iftar were CEO Ahmad Hashimi Abdul Manap, commercial director Shahrir Sharif, technical and operation chief Mohd Nisharuddin Mohd Noor and CFO Zafian Supiat.

Gas Malaysia, as a leading natural gas distributor, is committed to enhancing its presence and taking it to the next level by, among others, engaging all its stakeholders through this programme.

